Department Reports:

Outdoor Connections: C. Smith highlighted the successful Tractor Show, which drew 300 attendees, and shared updates on improvements to the hired man's quarters at Gallant Farm. She also shared photos from Bird Fest at Deer Haven Park, the Bats and Ice Cream program at Sticky Fingers Ice Cream in Kilbourne, and promoted Snake Week activities at the Deer Haven Park Visitor Center.

Administration: T. Swartzlander reported that the McCammon Creek Park East Area parking lot project is out to bid, architectural planning continues for the Perfect Schoolhouse, and fiscal procedures training is being developed for all staff in collaboration with the Fiscal Manager.

Human Resources: T. Benishek reported that nearly 500 people attended the July 12 Adventure Run at Gallant Woods Park and thanked the Preservation Parks Foundation for sponsoring the event. He also provided an update on the Total Compensation Survey being conducted with Experience Management Institute.

Park Police: Sgt. Watkins reported on several incidents: officers safely intervened when a juvenile was contemplating jumping from the Hoover Scenic Trail bridge; assisted the Sheriff's Office with a suspicious persons report at McCammon Creek Park involving potential firearm activity; and helped locate two missing juveniles at Shale Hollow Park, who were safely reunited with their parents. He also provided an update on a prior drug-related case at Sycamore Run Park.

Marketing & Communications: C. Saniel-Banrey reported on Marketing Department's support of the Preservation Parks Foundation's "Area 51" Gala, participation in recent community events, and ongoing website updates.

Natural Resources: C. Roshon shared that wetland construction at Perfect Creek Park is scheduled to begin in late July, weather permitting. A $5,000 Cabela's Outdoor Fund Grant through the Preservation Parks Foundation will assist in funding the project.

Park Operations: W. Wingert reported on facility improvements, including new automatic restroom doors at Gallant Woods Park, recent improvements at the District office, and the opening of a new grass trail at River Run Park.

Planning & Construction: M. Simpson shared progress photos and updates on the Bicentennial Barn project at McCammon Creek Park and the H2Ohio wetlands constructed in 2023 at Perfect Creek Park. He also reported the start of master planning for the Camp Lazarus 60-acre property and upcoming installation of new park entrance signs by Columbus Signs.
